

Since 2000, New York City's Asian population has grown by 32%.

Today, we are 13% of NYC's population.

But we comprised only 5% of voters in the 2013 Primary Elections.

Let's work together to Exercise our RIGHT to VOTE! Because Our VOTE Is Our VOICE!

Volunteer with APALA, ASAAL, and CAAAV: Organizing Asian Communities to Educate Our Communities and Get Out the Vote for the New York City General Election on Tuesday, November 5th!

Get Out the Vote Phone Banks!

Sunday, November 3rd, 1-4pm and
Monday, November 4th, 6-9pm

TWU Local 100 Union Hall
195 Montague Street, 3rd fl
Brooklyn, NY 11201

RSVP: apalany@gmail.com
cdang@caaav.org

Bilingual volunteers especially needed!
Bangla/Bengali,
Cantonese, Fujianese,
Hindi, Korean,
Mandarin, Punjabi, or Urdu

Sponsored by:

Asian Pacific American Labor Alliance
NEW YORK CHAPTER

CAA
AV
ORGANIZING ASIAN COMMUNITIES

